Important tax information:

- If your policy is registered, the DSC reimbursement amount is not considered income and will not be treated as a registered contribution.
- If your policy is non-registered, the DSC reimbursement amount is considered income under section 12(1) (x) of the Income Tax Act (Canada). It is your responsibility to report this income for personal income tax purposes.

Note: The above is based on current Canada Revenue Agency requirements, which are subject to change without notice.

3. Terms and Conditions

I* have redeemed part or all of my DSC or Low Load fund holdings from the financial institution indicated in section one. The redemption resulted in deferred sales charges. My advisor has reimbursed me for the amount of the deferred sales charges, and I want this amount deposited to my Equitable Life policy. I understand that my advisor will earn commission from Equitable Life.

I agree that I will be subject to the terms of the Equitable Life policy including a new deferred sales charge schedule, depending on the sales charge option I select.

If this is not a registered investment, I understand that the redemption may result in a deemed disposition and could trigger a capital gain/loss.

*For jointly owned policies "I" refers to both owners of the contract.

Equitable Life reserves the right to decline this request.
